Check-in -Transition Advising
The International Student Centre knows that it can be challenging to be away from your support network, in a new culture, and to do well academically. That's why we'd like to invite you to a Check-In with a Transition Advisor in your current semester.

A Transition Advisor is a bit like a guidance counsellor...we want to talk to you about your goals, how things are going so far, help you develop your plan for university, and give you the individual support and attention to help you be your best YOU at UTSC!
