

ADVENTUROUS EYE-OPENING UNFORGETTABLE

“ One of my favourite things about Exeter is the school spirit and pride that is always displayed on campus, it really makes you feel like you are part of something special!

JASMINE JEFFREYS, UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA, CANADA.
MEMBER OF THE UNIVERSITY OF EXETER WOMENS' RUGBY TEAM

“ For people thinking about studying abroad at Exeter, all I have to say is pack your bags! It was the most defining experience of my life so far and I would not trade it for anything.

KYLE DAUGHERTY, UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH, USA

“ The things I am enjoying most about my semester at the Penryn Campus are all the great people I've met and the laid back summer-like, friendly atmosphere that this campus exudes. Oh and the volleyball, I'm about to embark on a week long trip to Majorca with the team!

PAUL BRANDON, THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA, AUSTRALIA

You must be nominated for the exchange programme by your home university. If you have not been nominated, or if we do not have an exchange agreement with your university, you can study at Exeter as a Study Abroad Fee Paying student.

What entry requirements do I need to meet?

To be eligible to study at the University of Exeter as an exchange/study abroad student you must:

- Have the approval of your home university
- Have successfully completed one academic year of undergraduate study
- Have the equivalent of a minimum Grade Point Average of 3.0 where the maximum is 4.0
- Meet the University of Exeter's minimum English language requirements (where applicable) as outlined on the University's website

Application documents and how to apply

Your application should be completed online and submitted with the following supporting documents:

- Official academic transcript from your home university

“ I loved that the people who were teaching me had a wide range of their own research that they could draw upon to help explain concepts.”

ANNA THOMPSON, UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA, CANADA

“ Living on the campus with flatmates is great! We go out for coffee in Falmouth, we go surfing, sailing, on walks and random adventures.”

SOLENN CONAN, UNIVERSITY OF NANTES, FRANCE

Cornwall A county like no other Penryn Campus

- Cornwall will appeal if you want to study in beautiful surroundings and live as part of a vibrant student community
- A great student to teacher ratio lets you communicate directly with research leaders
- Guaranteed university-owned or managed accommodation*
- £30 million Environment and Sustainability Institute (ESI) leads cutting-edge investigations to seek innovative solutions to scientific dilemmas
- The vibrant town of Falmouth, just a 10-minute train journey from Penryn, is consistently recognised as one of the best places to live in the UK – students from all disciplines use the Cornish landscape as a ‘living laboratory’
- Falmouth’s seven beaches, beautiful rivers and the world-famous marina make it a haven for those who love sand, sailing and surf
- Made up of around 5000 students, the friendly and unique campus is shared with Falmouth University; one of the UK’s leading Arts Universities. This combination creates a vibrant mix of students with a diverse range of interests and backgrounds
- Over £175 million investment in the past 10 years and a new sports hall
- The Global Chums mentoring scheme helps new students settle into university life

*University accommodation is guaranteed for students who apply before the published deadline.

Our campuses

Depending on your choice of subject, you may be based at our Streatham Campus or St Luke’s Campus in Exeter, or at our Penryn Campus in Cornwall.

Exeter A modern city with a rich history

Streatham and St Luke’s campuses

- Set in the heart of the beautiful Devon countryside, Exeter is consistently recognised as one of the best places to live, study and work in the UK
- The Streatham Campus has benefitted from a £380 million investment in student facilities, including an impressive Sports Park and the Forum building – our Student Services Centre containing a modern 24/7 library, Career Zone, retail and catering outlets
- Sport and Health Sciences students studying at the St Luke’s Campus will benefit from the extensive teaching and research facilities which include purpose-built laboratories. The 160 year old campus retains a vibrant, collegiate atmosphere in which everyone soon gets to know each other
- Exeter is a lively, student-friendly city with a thriving arts and music scene
- Cafés, restaurants, pubs and shops sit alongside Exeter’s historic buildings such as the 14th century cathedral and Roman walls
- Get involved! We have a high level of student engagement through clubs and societies, sport, volunteering and the Students’ Guild. Exeter also has an award-winning student media network
- A vibrant international community, with many international societies and many cultural events throughout the year including Diversity Week, Diwali and Chinese New Year celebrations
- Our campuses offer a safe environment with 24-hour campus security
- English language support, in the form of credit and non-credit rated modules, is available to students who feel they need help in studying through the medium of English
- Orientation programmes at the start of each semester provide an ideal introduction to all aspects of university life, an opportunity to get to know the University and the city, and to make new friends
